

MARILYN SUDBERRY

PROFILE

Principal, Towne Meadow Elementary, Carmel Clay 2000-2005

Principal, Forest Dale Elementary, Carmel Clay 1994-2000

Principal, Hall Elementary, Monroe-Gregg 1991-1994

Assistant Principal, McClelland Elementary, Wayne Township 1989-1991

PROFESSIONAL HIGHLIGHTS

Chosen IASP District #5 Principal of the Year 2002

Cited in Building Shared Responsibility for Student Learning, by Conzemius and O'Neill (ASCD 2001)

Selected to open Towne Meadow as a new elementary in 2000

Conference presenter:

- ✓ "Professional Development School Partnership" American Association of Colleges for Teacher Education National Conference
- ✓ "A Proficiency Based Program Encompassing Standards" The National Academy on the Alignment of Standards and Teacher Development for Student Learning (ATE, NCATE, AACTE)
- ✓ "Drowning in Data" IASP Fall Conference
- ✓ "Backward Design" IPLA Winter Conference and IPLA LIVE
- ✓ "Standards Based Curriculum and Assessment" IPLA Winter Conference
- ✓ "INTASC Principles" IPLA Winter Conference
- ✓ "Raising Student Achievement" EPPSP
- ✓ "Professional Learning Communities" EPPSP

- ✓ “Results Driven School Achievement” Zionsville Administrators;
“Results Driven School Achievement” Zionsville Teachers
- ✓ “SMART Goals” Mill Creek School Corporation
- ✓ Facilitator and Presenter, IASP/IPLA Summer Team Building Institute
- ✓ Ventures Trainer for Carmel Clay Administrators
- ✓ “Teacher Evaluation” Carmel Clay Administrators
- ✓ Summer Retreat Good to Great Carmel Clay Administrators

Testimonials:

- Ø “You are – in my experience – an exceptional leader; I much look forward to staying in touch with you. All the best results” Mike Schmoker
- Ø “Marilyn is a master of results-focused school improvement....she thoughtfully and systematically planned and implemented a leadership model that resulted in greatly improved student achievement. This was accomplished because of her deep understanding of effective leadership, building leadership capacity in her school, and creating a collaborative professional learning community. Her core belief that students must always be the heart of what we do underlies her vision and goals for education.” Dr. Barbara Underwood (Superintendent, Carmel Clay Schools)
- Ø “Among her peers she stands at the top in her leadership skills, knowledge of curriculum and instruction, ability to implement and sustain effective programs and practices, professional growth, building leadership capacity, mentoring aspiring principals, and orchestrating the continuous school improvement process. She also is a visionary leader and effective presenter, actively participating in and facilitating administrators’ professional growth.” Dr. Libbie Morgan Conner (Assistant Superintendent, Carmel Clay Schools)

EDUCATION AND ADDITIONAL TRAINING

IPLA and Advanced IPLA Administrative Certificate	EPPSP	Butler University	Indianapolis, IN
MS		Butler University	Indianapolis, IN
BS		Evangel University	Springfield, MO